KPR CODE OF ETHICS The Code of Ethics of the Kentucky Public Retirees, Inc., is created to establish the ethical standards that govern the conduct of all who serve KPR. It is intended to promote public confidence in the leaders who serve the membership. The provisions of the KPR State Bylaws and Policies and Procedures shall apply to all KPR members chosen to serve in a leadership capacity. KPR leaders are sworn in and sign the Code of Ethics form adapted from provisions in the chapter on "Oath of Office; Code of Ethics" and the chart "KPR Leaders' Swearing-in and Code of Ethics Information." All leaders agree to: -- Follow the KPR State Bylaws and Policies and Procedures. -- Endeavor to ensure that any public statement outside the Board meeting reflects the intent as stated by the Board. -- Endeavor to ensure that our goal to protect our benefits is paramount to all members. -- Endeavor to ensure that we are single-minded regarding the protection of our nonpartisan status. Further, Presidents of local Chapters, as supported by the locally elected officers of their chapters, agree to: -- Keep all members of their respective Chapters informed of Board actions and plans that affect members. -- Support the State Officers. operating within the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, rules, and Policies and Procedures of KPR, Inc. -- Take any complaint of State Board policy and/or action(s) first to the State Board of Directors for possible resolution of disagreements in-house. -- Exercise care not to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which may be adverse to the interest of KPR; furthermore, not disclose or use information relating to the business of KPR for personal gain or advantage. -- Endeavor to ensure that we are single-minded regarding the protection of our benefits, but to carefully guard against becoming involved in partisan politics All leaders shall refrain from, by themselves or through others, knowingly: -- Using or attempting to use their influence in any manner that involves a substantial conflict between their personal and/or private interest and their duties in KPR. -- Using their position or office to obtain financial gain for themselves or any member of their family. Using or attempting to use their official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for themselves or others in derogation of the interest of KPR at large. All leaders should employ all means available to avoid all conduct that might in any way lead the general public to conclude they are using their official position to further their personal or private interest.

770	Dear < <first name="">>:</first>
772	It is our understanding that you have just recently retired from state government, and we are
774	inviting you to join the Chapter of Kentucky Public Retirees.
776	Kentucky Public Retirees is a non-profit organization of retired Kentucky government employees who wish to have input into their retirement future. Purposes of KPR include:
778	Protecting and improving our retirement benefits.
780	 Representing and promoting the interests of retirees before the General Assembly, State Retirement Board, and other agencies.
782	 Providing advice and consultation to public officials in matters such as health insurance.
784	Providing an outlet for fellowship and community service for retirees.
786 788	Our organization has been, and continues to be, central to the effort to protect the retirement benefits of retirees and current employees and to modernize the pension system to ensure a financially sound and sustainable retirement program.
790 792 794	I encourage you to join KPR and to be as active as your situation will allow. Some members can be involved to a great extent; others cannot attend meetings, but can make phone calls or write letters to legislators. Every member counts. The larger our membership number, the more influential our voices!!
	Our Chapter meets for lunch at You
796	are invited to our next meeting, which will be held on For more specific information, please contact
